Myra Creighton is a partner in the Atlanta office. Her practice in labor and employment law has focused on litigation and counseling clients concerning issues under the Americans with Disabilities Act, Family and Medical Leave Act, and sexual harassment. She also routinely presents seminars and training programs on those areas of the law. Myra authored the chapter entitled "Mental Disabilities Under the Americans with Disabilities Act" in the treatise, Mental and Emotional Injuries in Employment Litigation, Second Edition, published by the Bureau of National Affairs in 2001. Myra is also co-author of "No Good Deed Goes Unpunished: Employee Assistance Programs As Sources of Liability," 24 Employee Relations Law Journal 79 (1998); and "Mental Disabilities Under the Americans with Disabilities Act: A Management Rights Approach," 20 Employee Relations Law Journal 541 (1995). Prior to joining the firm, Myra was a law clerk for Judge Duross Fitzpatrick of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Georgia.
